

New! FUSION Training

Online, On Demand, PLUS Live Instruction by Zoom

PART 1: Online, On Demand, Learning Management System

This is an advanced education platform available for the first time in the Window Treatment industry. There are important advantages over any other training system

Each lesson taught by an award-winning professional that has actually done the job

When the subject is sales, you will learn from a top professional that actually set sales records. If it is about accounting or operations, your instructor has done it and excelled. Only top-flight experts teach courses and lessons you receive at WCU Global

Short 10 Minute Lessons. Easy to Study and Comprehend

Each 45-minute course is comprised of short, 10-minute lessons. (Time may vary.) Short units makes lessons easy to understand and review.

Quiz After Each Lesson – assures you understand key points!

Each lesson has a self-test quiz. This way you are sure to follow priority points. It is a great study review.

Stop the lesson. Then automatically find your place

Stop your lesson whenever and wherever you want. Then return to your place easily and automatically, just like Netflix®.

Study On Your Schedule at Your Convenience

Experience the power of the Window Coverings University Global Education System, an Advanced Learning Management System. Over 30 courses available for your selection. View them all Online On Demand at your convenience

MANAGERS – Guide Your Employees and Staff

With the WCU Global Education system, you know when learners access their lessons. You know how far they have studied. You can help employees learn faster with your guidance. You'll love this system. Educate your team and manage better

New FUSION Training Accelerates Your Education

Here is where FUSION training shines
